

2008 - 2009

CITY DIFFERENT CITY POSTER CALL FOR ENTRIES

A unique opportunity for artists to display their work to a wide audience. Artwork will be judged on artistic quality as well as its ability to represent, market, and promote Santa Fe as a creative city.

COMPETITION RULES

Entry form must be received by April 7, 2008.

Artwork must be an original two-dimensional work.

Paintings, drawings, etchings, serigraphs, lithographs, photographs, mixed media, and reproduction quality photographs of a 3-dimensional artwork are all eligible.

Vertical and horizontal entries are accepted.

When printed, artwork will not exceed 20"x30".

(Image quality may be lost if artwork is significantly larger or smaller.)

Entry pieces must be delivered to the City Council Chambers (200 Lincoln Avenue) between 8:00-10:00am on Friday, April 11, 2008. (Early entries and late arrivals will not be accepted.)

A title card must accompany entries. (Do not include the artist's name.)

Easels, props, and special lighting are not allowed.

All artists must reside within the immediate Santa Fe area (inclusive of the northern portion of Santa Fe county). Only the work of living artists will be considered. Only one entry per artist will be accepted. Individuals who have won the City poster competition within the past three years are not eligible.

The entries will be judged by Arts Commissioners Cynthia Graves, Justin Bransford, Kirk Ellis, Kerri Segell, Rena Oyenque Salazar, Michael Namingha, Peter A. Pacheco, Andrea Poole and Melissa White, Kim Russo, Art Department Chair, College of Santa Fe, as well as Mayor Coss, and Sarah Bienvenu, artist and winner of the 2007 Santa Fe Poster Competition.

The Santa Fe Arts Commission assumes no responsibility for any loss or damage that may occur to entries delivered before 8:00am on April 11, 2008, or left after the scheduled pick-up time. All participating artists must enter into a professional services agreement if chosen. The winning original will be returned to the artist.
